“BRUGES AND THE BEST OF FLANDERS”

10 days, from Friday, April 9, to Sunday, April 18, 2010

Only $ 2,395 from Toronto, based on double occupancy – single room supplement: $400.

A glorious spring break in what is arguably the best preserved Medieval town in all of Europe. This “Venice of the North” offers plenty of art, culture, and history, including Canadian history! Add to that great food, Belgian lace, chocolates, waffles, beer...Your tour escort, historian Jacques Pauwels, will share with you his intimate knowledge of this ancient but lively city, of Flanders, and of Belgium in general.

PROPOSED ITINERARY:

Day 1 - Friday, April 9:

At approximately 8 PM, departure from Toronto on the non-stop flight to Brussels of Jet Airways, considered to be one of the world’s best airlines. You will enjoy excellent service - a fine dinner as well as a light breakfast will be served on board.

Day 2 - Saturday, April 10:

Arrival in Brussels around 10 AM. A deluxe private coach will be waiting here to take us first to the grounds of the immensely successful 1958 Brussels World Fair for a look at its theme building, the amazing Atomium, and then to the beautiful town of Bruges, a transfer of approximately one hour. Check into the centrally-located Hotel Zand, a comfortable 3-star or “superior tourist-class” hotel, and free time to settle in and get some rest after your overnight flight. In late afternoon, leisurely introductory walking tour of the historical city center, followed by welcome dinner in the cozy restaurant of our hotel.

Day 3 - Sunday, April 11:

After breakfast, walking tour of Bruges, with as highlights the superb Gothic Cathedral (featuring a Madonna and Baby Jesus sculpted by Michelangelo!), the historic Burg Square, Market Square with the amazing tower of the Belfry, Medieval St. John's Hospital, the romantic Lake of Love, and the famous Beguinage. In the afternoon, sightseeing cruise on the scenic canals that crisscross Bruges and earned this city the epithet "Venice of the North". This evening's dinner in the restaurant of our hotel is "à la carte", so you will be able to enjoy delicious Belgian culinary specialties such as Flemish beef stew, mussels and frites, and shrimp croquettes...And how about Belgian chocolate mousse for dessert?

BRUGES AND THE HOTEL ZAND:

Bruges (Flemish: Brugge), a UNESCO World Heritage site, is not only the top tourist attraction of Belgium, but also one of the prettiest and most interesting cities in all of Europe. Full of churches, museums and other stately buildings, Bruges is not only a cornucopia of architectural and cultural treasures, mostly from the Middle Ages, but also a dynamic city with countless cafés and bars, excellent restaurants, and superb shopping. And there is plenty to see in the surrounding Flemish countryside, including the North Sea coast, only 15 km from here! For more information, see the city's website, www.brugge.be/internet/en/index.htm, and <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bruges>. Please note that the local language is Flemish, i.e. Dutch as spoken in Belgium, but just about everybody here also speaks English. For great pictures of Bruges, see www.flickr.com/search/?q=Bruges. For travellers' tips and comments, see www.tripadvisor.com/Tourism-g188671-Bruges\_West\_Flanders-Vacations.html

Hotel Zand is officially classified as a 3-star/superior tourist-class hotel. The recently renovated rooms April not be very big, but they fully equipped with bath or shower, WC, colour-TV, and a hair-dryer. The hotel serves a generous buffet breakfast and it features an excellent restaurant that is also very popular with the locals. The management and staff are very friendly and helpful. Last but not least, the hotel is superbly situated on the Friday Market or "Zand," in the heart of the historical part of town as well as the major shopping district! For more information, see the hotel's website: www.hoteltzand.be. ### Day 4 – Monday, April 12:

Full-day excursion to "Flanders' Fields," the battlefields of World War I around the town of Ieper (Ypres), situated not far from Bruges, near the French border. We first visit the picturesque town itself, with the Cloth Hall, the fine War Museum (www.inlandersfields.be/#museum), and the Menin Gate, the foremost British WW I Memorial in Belgium. After lunch in a typical restaurant, we concentrate on sites associated with the Canadian war effort, such as Essex Farm Cemetery, where John McRae composed his famous poem; the monument to the "Brooding Soldier," commemorating the Canadians who fell in the first gas attack, in April 1915; Tyne Cot Cemetery, the largest British war cemetery in the world; and the Canadian monument in the infamous village of Passchendaele. Return to Bruges in late afternoon.

Day 5 - Tuesday, April 13:

This morning we focus on the great museums of Bruges. First we visit the Groeninge Museum with its wonderful collection of paintings by masters of the very inappropriately named 15th-century school of “Flemish Primitives,” such as Van Eyck and Bosch. Then we enjoy more Flemish art during a visit to the Memlinc Museum, situated just around the corner in the former St. John’s Hospital, a magnificent brick building of the 13th century, overlooking a romantic canal. In the afternoon, after attending a demonstration of lace-making, an ancient local tradition, your tour guide will initiate you into the fine Belgian art of waffle-eating. While we are at it, your guide will also take you to his favourite chocolate shop for a tasting of some typically Belgian hand-made “pralines.” After that, the lovers of beer, of which Belgium has approximately 400 different kinds, April be ready to visit the famous local brewery, Halve Maan.

Day 6 - Wednesday, April 14:

More Canadian history today, but with a focus on WW II! We first explore villages such as Moerbrugge and Moerkerke, where Canadians fought the Germans in the fall of 1944 in what became known as the “Battle of the Scheldt.” On to the Canadian War Cemetery in the village of Adegem, located on the banks of the Leopold Canal, followed by a short reception and an opportunity to mingle with representatives of the Belgian-Canadian Association and other locals, who are always keen to meet Canadians! Also visit to the local Canada War Museum and lunch in its restaurant (www.canadamuseum.be). Return to Bruges in late afternoon. This evening, opportunity to enjoy an optional multi-course gourmet dinner in “Le Duc de Bourgogne” (www.ducdebourgogne.be), one of the finest and most beautiful restaurants in all of Belgium; the all-inclusive cost (with aperitif, wine, water, coffee, tips) will be 100 Euros

The Canadian War Cemetery in Adegem >

Day 7 - Thursday, April 15:

Optional excursion to Ghent, the former capital of Flanders, a city which, like Bruges, experienced its Golden Age during the Middle Ages. Our walking tour here will include the Belfry, City Hall, the Castle of the Counts of Flanders, and of course St. Bavon Cathedral with the famous painting by Van Eyck, “The Adoration of the Mystic Lamb.” This excursion is priced at $85 and must be booked prior to departure of the tour.

Day 8 - Friday, April 16:

Morning excursion to the Medieval village of Damme and the sophisticated North Sea resort of Knokke. Return to Bruges via the quaint village of Lissewege with its amazing 13th-century tithe barn, once part of a huge Cistercian Monastery. Afternoon free in Bruges. This evening, optional dinner with live Medieval music, performed by a talented couple who seem to have jumped out of a Bruegel painting!

Day 9 - Saturday, April 17:

Your final day in Bruges is entirely “at leisure”, except for our Au Revoir-dinner in the restaurant of our hotel.

Day 10 - Sunday, April 18:

After an early breakfast, short transfer to Brussels Airport and non-stop return flight to Canada with Jet Airways. Departure around 10 AM and arriving around 12 noon.

< Windmill and canal in Damme
