CHICAGO IN DEPTH AND “ALL THAT JAZZ”

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS – Thursday, September 2 – Monday, September 6, 2010

Join us for a wonderful tour to one of the world's great cities - Chicago. If you are interested in a city that is alive with human activity, boasts a unique style of commercial and residential architecture, is filled with art and sculpture, marvelous gardens and flower displays, offers, drama, marvelous music of all types, numerous sporting events, and world-class shopping then you will want to be a part of this experience. The tour takes place over the Labour Day weekend when Chicago is hosting its famous Jazz Festival. There are all types of jazz concerts, many of which are available to everyone at no charge - both indoors and outdoors.

Our organization will allow us to participate in group activities in the mornings and early afternoons, leaving the remainder of each day for everyone to enjoy activities of their own choosing or to select options with the tour escort serving as mentor. One of the desirable characteristics of Chicago is that it is compact allowing easy walking throughout the central area, and it has a rectangular plan affording ease of finding directions.

Participants will receive a package of materials that will enable them to review options and make choices that suit their interests and desires. This package will be made available ahead of the tour so that everyone may do their own research in order to make best use of free time.
